ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL. FRIDAY OCTOBER 24, 1947 3 SECTIONS — 24 PAGES $3.00 PER YEAR

Open bids on 2-way radio at Arlington Heights

A SPECIAL APOLOGY to us, patriotic organizations and others who replenish their treasures by means of raffles, door prizes and bingo games. The U. S. Postal department says, "naughty, naughty." Even the application of the name of the inner of an automobile may from the mails a newspaper publishing such information. A Louis paper asked for a ruling on such news and a general illetin has gone out to all postmasters. In the meantime we are trying to think of a new word meaning "bingo" and "raffle."

HOWEVER THE U. S. treasury is on hand to collect the tax on the auto awarded in a raffle and slot machines are off as long as the government sets its $5.00 per machine rake-

A STORY RECEIVED this week from a Chicago news agency told about a raid that the sheriff's office staged in Arlington Heights. The detectives arrested pool two hours before they collected sufficient evidence to say "come with me."

EVERYTHING WAS SET to use somebody telephone somewhere else a tipoff to have $100 ready. It seems that fifty cents and one dollar bets on horses in Arlington Heights is a greater wrong than the big time gambling in progress at a certain club in Sanders road, closer to the sheriff's police station than Arlington Heights.

POWERS THAT BE have dashed the green light to tavern owners and others who desire to install the one-armed bandits. When the offer was made to an Arlington Heights business man, he replied, "you may have the say so in the rural districts, but your o. k. does not mean a thing within the village of Arlington."

HEARD SOME GOOD NEWS Tuesday morning. The business men will wait no longer for the village board to do something about parking. The Chamber of commerce has invited proponents of parking meters to appear at their next meeting. They are ready to make a definite recommendation to the powers-that-be.

ALDERMAN HARTMAN presented to the village council Monday evening plans for the installation of ornamental street lights for the business section, the lights extending to Sigwalt street on the south, Eastman street on the north; State Road in the east; Highland on the west and all along Northwest highway to Foundry road. Cost $50,000.

Arlington Heights has worn out one ornamental lighting system and it is time to think about a new one, even if our publication office is going to be outside the lighted zone.

A WOMAN AUTOIST came into our office Tuesday with blood in her eye. The seven cars of employees parked along Chestnut street left only one lane for traffic in two directions. She had just escaped a head-on collision and wanted to know what we were going to do about it. We herewith pass the inquiry on to the parking committee of the village board.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is ready to sponsor a $750 to $1,000 Christmas lighting display this year. It also is making plans to welcome the new residents in a substantial manner. Solicitors for the lighting will tell you business men all about it with the next week.

WE HAVE BEEN TRYING to get hold of Arthur Franzen to get a bear story. It is not every winter who can shoot a bear and a couple of deer on a mid-season vacation, but Art did it. We get the story before we go to press, it will be some here on this page.

WE LEARNED AT A PTA meeting Tuesday night that in Indiana, a cigarette tax pays a part of the salaries of the school teachers. We can see advertisements reading, "smoke cigarettes and help your school."

WE ARE GOING to pass on to our readers a few birth figures that have been unearthed in Arlington. A population survey completed in District 25 reveals that the number of school children between the ages of ten and fourteen are eight percent below normal, meaning that during the depression years there was a birth slump in Arlington.

THAT SAME SURVEY reveals that there has been an increase of 35% in births since 1940. That increase is now entering our local schools. It does not take a wise man to see that we must either have another depression to cut down the births or start thinking about school house No. 3.

Award flags to grade schools at Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights village board opened bids Monday evening on a Motorola short wave two-way police radio outfit that will include central broadcasting station and equipment for the two police cars. The only bid was $3,347.50, which was taken under advisement. Similar equipment is in use at Lombard, Elgin, Aurora, Lake Forest.

BUILDING contractors operating in Arlington Park and Arlington Ridge, will be asked to remove unnecessary sidewalk pavement on Oakton street in response to a petition presented to the board.

Members of the fire department will hereafter be paid $1.00 each for attendance at practice meetings. C. M. Behrens was appointed chairman of the Plan Commission for a term of eight years and Wm. F. Meyer as secretary.

A RESOLUTION was passed authorizing foreclosure action on Country Club addition and two other parcels on which sewer assessments are unsatisfied.

A subdivision plat covering 39 acres between Euclid and Miner to Windsor Drive on the east was referred to the planning commission. This tract is being developed by Beuteler Bros.

Powers that be have dashed the green light to tavern owners and others who desire to install the one-armed bandits. When the offer was made to an Arlington Heights business man, he replied, "you may have the say so in the rural districts, but your o. k. does not mean a thing within the village of Arlington."

Pupils sell PTA to folks

Mrs. Stadelman, membership chairman of Arlington Heights P. T. A., reported Tuesday evening that 1947-1948 memberships total 648. She admitted that the selling had been done by the school pupils themselves. The "flag raising" of each room as memberships are received aroused the interest of the children, who in turn talked PTA in their homes.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Fraiser, president, announced the annual Bookfair which will occur October 28, which will be an excellent time to select books for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. Tuttle urged the early purchase of the season tickets for the four Sunday evening lectures that start with Norman Thomas on Nov. 23 and ends March 28 with Burton Holmes, in person.

MRS. FRASIER passed on to the membership the promise of the contractor that the auditorium of the south school would be ready for the November meeting. She qualified that announcement a little after she saw the faces of the school board members who were occupying front row seats.

Members were urged to vote November 4 in favor of the establishment of the tuberculosis sanitarium district for the purpose of providing beds for tuberculosis patients from the suburban area.

Business men plan big welcome to Santa this year

The Christmas spirit is going to be displayed this year in a big way in Arlington Heights. Plans are on the way by the Chamber of Commerce to spend up to a thousand dollars towards downtown decorations. The cost of the display will be paid by a special Christmas fund that is being collected from local business men.

"We have 200 more families residing in town this Christmas than a year ago," says President Franzen, "and it is up to us to show that this town believes in the postmasters of California.

Mrs. Dodge and a fellow postmistress from Cook county are taking in Seattle, Portland and other scenic places in the great northwest.

Works double shift, resulting in auto accident costing $2,300

Harold Helfgott, 16 So. Dunton, worked a double shift Oct. 18. On his way home at 2:05 a. m. on a fifty foot wide pavement, he crashed into three parked autos. Estimates of repairs total $2,300. The accident occurred near the Talcott real estate office on State road, Arlington Heights.

Helfgott's car was damaged to the amount of $750; John Garrett, 15 Maple street, Mt. Prospect, $48; E. L. Thompson Jr., 631 So. Belmont, Arlington Hts., $622; Walter Isaacson, RFD Arlington Heights, $867.

All three car owners signed the complaint charging reckless driving against Helfgott, who was fined $10 and costs.

Paddock Publications are publishing the Cook County 1946 tax delinquent list this week. The townships of Hanover, Barrington, Palatine and Schaumburg appear in the Palatine Enterprise. Wheeling township appears in the Arlington Heights Herald and Cook County Herald. Elk Grove township appears in Mt. Prospect Herald and Cook County Herald.

Norman Thomas lecture series speaker Nov. 23

Mrs. Geo. N. Tuttle, ticket chairman for the 1947-1948 Sunday Evening Lecture Series in Arlington Heights announced this week that there are a lot of season tickets not yet sold. "This event was planned by the Woman's Club," stated Mrs. Tuttle, "to provide cultural entertainment for the community. It is not a profit making project, but it should be self supporting."

THE FIRST number Nov. 23 will be a debate, "Our Foreign Policy," between Norman Thomas, the well known socialist leader who appears frequently on the Town Meeting of the Air programs and Dr. Wm. McGovern, an outstanding professor of Northwestern University.

The second and third numbers will be Jan. 25 and Feb. 22. Dr. Luther Gable gives a lecture demonstration on "Atomic Energy," on the first date and Dr. Lester Schriener, philosopher, civic leader and humorist, talks on "American Business," at the February meeting.

THE SERIES will end March 28 with Burton Holmes in person. It is important that the season ticket sale be completed as soon as possible. To make it easy for purchasers, a telephone call to any of the following will bring the tickets to your door: Mrs. Geo. Tuttle, Mrs. Carl Ewert or Mrs. Arthur Franzen.

Arlington high school Ag. Department has soil testing equipment

Much interest is being shown in soil fertility problems by both the day students and those who are in the adult evening classes in agriculture at the Arlington Heights township high school. To help in the work, equipment has been secured to test soils for acidity, phosphorus and potassium. It is agreed that a knowledge of the testing procedure increases interest in learning about the essential elements in the soil and how they affect plant growth. The full program teaches the importance of regular testing of the soil.

Fifteen adults are now enrolled in the agriculture class which meets Wednesday evenings. The subjects taken up are determined by interest of the group.

Ex-Northeast schools now North Suburban

Seeding members of the Northeast conference picked a name for their new league Wednesday afternoon of this week formally admitting Crystal Lake and Woodstock into their fold. The organization, including, also, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Warren, Zion-Benton and Grayslake high schools, will be known as North Suburban league.

Officers elected Wednesday were Raymond Moore of Lake Forest, president, H. E. Underbrink of Libertyville, vice-president, Hubert Pearce of Zion secretary, and Ralph Cheneveth of Woodstock treasurer. A committee has not yet been told but a check for $1,000 will be handed to them next Monday evening for that purpose.

Membership in Garden Club is open to public

Membership in Arlington Heights Garden Club is open to the general public. It is an organization that will allow home gardeners to trade ideas, yes, even trade bulbs, etc. The larger the membership the greater success.

Monthly meetings are held the second Wednesday at the north school. Announcement of the speaker will be made later.

Suburban fares go up November 1st

Illinois Commerce Commission authorized this week an increase of ten percent in all suburban fares starting November 1. Arlington Heights village board authorized its attorney, Hugo J. Thal to represent the village in any further hearings and cooperate with other villages in asking the establishment of a 46-mile monthly ticket.

To honor Girl Scouts in week long observance

Sunday, October 26, will mark the opening of Girl Scout Week, when the Girl Scouts of Arlington Heights will join a million and a quarter members of their organization throughout the nation to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low.

ACCORDING TO Mrs. John Desch, program chairman, Girl Scout Week this year will be celebrated as the climax of the 35th Anniversary being observed throughout 1947. Organizations and persons who have aided the growth of Girl Scouting during the anniversary year are especially thanked at this time. In Arlington Heights, Girl Scout Week will be inaugurated by attendance of Girl Scouts and Brownie Girl Scouts in uniform at the Sunday school and church service of their choice. Local Sunday school officials and ministers have announced plans for an observance honoring the Girl Scout Organization at these services.

The Week features the seven service days with special activities designed to highlight the various phases of Girl Scout activities and ideals. Sunday is Church Day; Monday, Homemaking Day; Tuesday, Citizenship Day; Wednesday, Health and Safety Day; Thursday, International Friendship Day; Friday, Arts and Crafts Day; and Saturday, Out-of-Doors Day.

THE WEEK will be culminating on Friday evening, Oct. 31 with a costume party for Girl Scouts and Brownie Girl Scouts at the Presbyterian gymnasium, from 7:30 to 9:30, honoring Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the organization. Mrs. N. M. Latoff will be in charge of general arrangements for the party and Miss Janet Christie, girls' physical education director of the public schools, will have charge of the games. Refreshments and decorations are going to add to the "spirit" of the evening.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK has been observed for more than two decades. Mrs. Alva Meyer, president of the Council, explained. October 31 is the anniversary of Juliette Low's birth and Girl Scout Week always encompasses this date. Mrs. Low organized the first troop in the United States on March 2, 1912. She died in 1927, having lived to see the organization she founded spread from coast to coast and develop close affiliations with Girl Scout groups on every continent through the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

Police Benefit dance Saturday night

If the sale of tickets means anything Arlington Field House will have one of the largest crowds since its construction Saturday night when Arlington Heights police hold its annual benefit dance. Music is by Wally Hahnfield. Tickets 50c. War bonds totaling $175 will be given away.

A large amount of the receipts have been ear marked for the ultra high frequency radio on which bids were received by the village board Monday evening. The installation included a central receiving and dispatching station at the municipal building with both police cars similarly equipped.

The village board members have not yet been told but a check for $1,000 will be handed to them next Monday evening for that purpose.

Des Plaines boy pays $100 for privilege of driving 80 mph

Richard Whitson, 833 Mason st., Des Plaines, was fined $200 in the police court of Judge Neumann Wednesday morning for driving 80 miles an hour through Arlington Heights. Half the fine was remitted, but the 16 year old boy has lost his driving privileges for 60 days. His father told the judge that he did not need a car, anyway.

The chase by Officer Karsten started in Stonegate and ended at Chicago ave., Palatine, where traffic forced the boy to slow down. The presence of four boys in the front seat of the car was given by Richard as the reason he did not know he was being chased by the police. His only excuse was that he was racing a train powered by a diesel engine. The boy also owns a motorbike that he cannot drive until Christmas.

Judge Neumann continued until next Wednesday a case against Edwin Sieburg, whose wife had filed a complaint at 2:30 a. m. Sieburg has a suspended sentence over him in another court that Judge Neumann is going to investigate before acting on the new charge.

Public is warned not to burn leaves on pavements and roadways.

R. J. Becker, Supt. of Public Works.

A double thank you

This week, October 26 through November 1, has been officially designated as Girl Scout Week and the 300 Girl Scouts of Arlington Heights are joining with a million other girls across the country in its celebration.

These youngsters and young women—they range in age from seven to seventeen—are taking this opportunity to say "thank you" to the organizations who have helped and guided them in their Girl Scout activities. To the Girl Scouts, this "thank you" is a kind of summing-up at the end of the thirty-fifth year of their existence as an organization. It is an expression of their appreciation to those adults who have given their support to the young girls of our community.

It is an interesting commentary upon the thinking of our young girls that they should want to say "thank you," when in reality we adults have just as much reason to say "thank you" to them. These girls, in their trim uniforms with their bright smiles and their constant willingness to serve, are a source of inspiration to grown-ups everywhere. They represent the future of our country and, with their international membership, the future of the world.

We have the privilege of helping prepare them for the task they face—a privilege which is also a pleasure.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 19, was:

"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT"

The Golden Text was:

"The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God" (I Cor. 1: 18).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:

"Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus. By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; . . . Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water . . . Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise" (Heb. 10: 19, 22, 35, 36).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"When the human element in him struggled with the divine, our great Teacher said: 'Not my will, but Thine, be done!'—that is, Let not the flesh, but the Spirit be represented in me. This is the new understanding of spiritual Love. It gives all for Christ, or Truth. It blesses its enemies, heals the sick, casts out error, raises the dead from trespasses and sins, and preaches the gospel to the poor, the meek in heart . . . The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done" (pp. 33, 202).

Presbyterian women plan 'ye old type' of Christmas bazaar

A Christmas bazaar in "ye olde tyme" tradition will be held all day Nov. 4 and 5, under auspices of the Woman's Association of First Presbyterian church, in the church at Arlington Heights. Numerous attractions have been planned for the early Christmas shopper. Mrs. Harold Peter, general chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Andrew Sim, have overlooked no detail in order to provide the public with everything that should be featured by an old-fashioned bazaar.

A mecca for gourmets will be the pantry, or food booth, under the personal supervision of Mrs. Sim. The Evening Circle of the association, Circle 6, will have a candy booth and fish pond, under the management of the group co-chairmen, Mrs. N. J. Leimetter and Mrs. Paul Espenash. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmidt have donated popcorn and butter in order to provide the same kind of popcorn their patrons enjoy at carnivals and circuses.

Mrs. Albert E. Goldthwaite, president of the association, has kept in touch with all the things pertaining to the bazaar and is serving on several committees, too. During the summer the purchasing committee took preliminary steps toward the completion of finished articles. This group included Mrs. Albert H. Bauer, Mrs. Goldthwaite, Mrs. Peter, Mrs. Harvey Barber and Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Much interest has been shown in the doll booth which will be managed by Mrs. Nicholas Mayer and her committee. Mrs. Clarence Stadler is chairman of the booth for infant's wear and knitted goods. Aprons will be arranged in an attractive booth directed by Mrs. J. C. Jones and her committee. Mrs. Roy F. Thompson will have charge of pillow cases; and Mrs. Goldthwaite and Mrs. Roy Fideller will manage the section planned for towels of all kinds.

Mrs. Albert Bauer will be chairman of decorations, and a booth for glazed flowers will be in charge of Mrs. M. W. Grigsby and Mrs. Farnie Wood. Mrs. Donald Cox will supervise a White Elephant re-sale booth. Art posters are being planned by a committee including, among others, Mrs. Frank Meyer, Mrs. Harvey Klehm and Joseph E. Lohr.

Tentative plans have been made for a craft display including hooked rugs made by members, and quilts of this generation as well as generations past.

Marion Blume showered

Miss Marion Blume of Arlington Heights, who will become the bride of Raymond Roper of Palatine this Saturday, was guest of honor at two recent bridal showers. The first was given October 15 by her two sisters, Lorraine and Bernice Blum, who will be her attendants. The many lovely gifts were opened while the bride-to-be was seated beneath a gayly decorated umbrella that was surrounded by streamers of aqua and pink. After the gifts were opened the guests played bunco and enjoyed refreshments.

The girls who work with Miss Blume at the American Ironing Machine Co. in Algonquin surprised her with a bridal shower October 16. She was presented with a yellow blanket and several other gifts. Refreshments made the evening complete.

All women cast for Friendly Circle play

"The Little Red School House," which is the title of the play to be given November 6 and 7 by the Friendly Circle of St. John's church, Arlington Heights, will have an all woman cast.

Tickets are now on sale, 50¢ for adults and 35¢ for children, and may be purchased from the chairman, Mrs. Fredrich Lauterburg, Arlington Heights 747, or from any member of the Friendly Circle.

Carol Peter and Harold Busse exchange vows

The choir loft and altar of the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church were banked with baskets of white mums, which were alternated with candleholders holding tapering white candles which lent the only light to the setting of Miss Carol Peter of Arlington Heights and Harold Busse of Mt. Prospect. Miss Peter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peter and Mr. Busse is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Busse. Rev. Carl Victor Brown performed the double ring ceremony which took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Mr. and Mrs. Busse are now honeymooning in Estes Park, Colorado and upon their return will be at home at 300 E. Evergreen street, Mt. Prospect. Community Camera back acting as ushers. Dennis Busse, nephew of the groom served as ring bearer.

Before the bridal party entered the church Mrs. Louis Hollenbaek sang "Because" and "I Love Thee," accompanied by Mrs. Richard Lull at the organ. While the couple knelt after taking their vows Mrs. Hollenbaek sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Gowned in white satin, Miss Peter entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her dress was styled with fitted bodice, having net yoke edged in a ruffle of lace, and long pointed sleeves; and a full skirt ending in a train. A crown of fresh stephanotis held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a heartshaped bouquet of three white orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

The first picture showed the use of procaine in a spinal anesthetic for a Caesar's Section and the second, pentathol sodium, given intravenously and illustrating its many uses and benefits.

Many of the nurses who have retired from active duty felt that it was an evening well spent and are looking forward to other lectures and programs that will keep them up to date on current procedures in the medical and nursing fields.

The bride was attended by Miss Dolores Hogreve as maid of honor and Mrs. Edward Crofoot as matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Betty Davis and Mrs. Ralph Hauptly. The attendants all wore aqua taffeta dresses that were styled with fitted bodices, that had net yokes fastened above the drop shoulder effect necklines and cap sleeves, and full skirts with bustle backs. They wore matching gauzelets and carried heartshaped bouquets. The maid of honor's flowers were yellow and rust mums, the matron of honor had rust mums, and the bridesmaids had yellow mums, all wearing matching headpieces.

A four-fold program plan for the year was set up at the second regular A. A. U. W. meeting last Thursday evening. Forty-five women were present including members from Park Ridge, Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, and Des Plaines. The plan presented by the program chairman, Mrs. Charles Bentley, was for the group to 1. familiarize itself with the activities of the state and national A. A. U. W.; 2. to acquaint itself with the cultural facilities of the area; 3. to investigate local school needs; 4. to give opportunity to girls to obtain college information.

The theme of this meeting was "Orienting ourselves as a branch of A. A. U. W." and in connection with this each committee chairwoman told of the part her committee plays in other local branches and in the state and national organization.

A panel discussion prepared by the Des Plaines Theater Guild on the theme of internationalism and world peace will be presented by the International Relations Committee at the next meeting. This will be on November 20 at the home of Miss Mary Luek, 1390 Walnutt st., Des Plaines.

Back And Legs Broken In Accident

Richard Kapolzimske, 190 Rose st., Bensenville, was seriously injured Friday morning, October 10, while at work at the Milwaukee R. R. roundhouse, when the dome from a locomotive he was working on fell on him, shortly after he had begun work at 7 a. m.

MR. KAPOLZIMSKE, a machinist, was removed to Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, by ambulance, where it was found he had suffered a broken back, broken left leg, and internal injuries. His condition is still reported as critical.

Just six months ago, in another freak accident at the roundhouse, both of his ankles were fractured, and he had just recently returned to work.

Hunters Increase
Figures for the 1946 season warrant the estimate that 30 per cent more hunters invaded the woods and fields than in 1945 when, despite firearms and ammunition shortages, an all-time high of nearly 10 million licensed gunners was established.

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH

October is nearly over and each passing day brings up closer to winter. It also brings us closer to the great party that is planned on October 31st at the Field House. It is going to be a bigger and better party than that held last year, and that is going some.

There are already many swell prizes to be given away on that evening. The Scarsdale Association is donating tickets to outstanding football games, and the merchants of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, and Prospect Heights have contributed generously to the party fund. The fund will be used to buy prizes and decorations. Everything on Halloween night will be free to all Youth Center members. If any of you merchants have been accidentally missed by the canvass and are interested in donating, please get in touch with one of the officers of the Youth Center.

Mr. Bloom who is in charge of the Field House has offered both the upstairs and downstairs for use on next Friday night. There will be dancing as well as lounging and games and amusements.

The Halloween party is designed to give us something that is not destructive. The merchants are donating a great deal of money and goods in the hope that they will not have to waste precious time and labor cleaning up the debris of the 31st. Last year the party helped to make Halloween one of the safest ever known in Arlington. That is also our aim this year. The adults want us to have fun but not at the expense of others.

If you like the idea of having this party, if you like the way it is put on, then or Halloween you come to the field house and have a good time till the party is over. Afterwards you'll go home without raising cane on the way. That's the only way you can make this party an annual tradition of Ramble Inn.

Don't forget to get your Ramble Inn membership. You'll want to go to that Halloween party, but you won't get in without a membership. You can get them at the door of the Y. C. on Wednesday, Friday, at Saturday for only $1.00. Get them right away.

Here is Ramble Inn's best wishes and congratulations to Arlington High's fighting Cardinal football team. They proved their ability and determination when they overcame Niles in a real thriller. Orchids also go to Coach Larsen and Line Coach Creamer. They have done a great job. Let every loyal Arlingtonite Forest thus putting Arlington in a three way tie for first place. Fight, Fight, Red and White!

Just to clear up a little misunderstanding. No person not having a membership may enter Ramble Inn unless he pays a quarter and is sponsored by a member. A member may sponsor no more than two persons a night.

Here are white orchids to Mr. Conrad and the undefeated Freshman football team. They look like they are going to put the conference championship of 1951 in Arlington's trophy case. They located on a farm near Wheeling and later rented the Volz farm in Wheeling at the Northwest corner of Milwaukee ave. and Dundee rd. In 1915 they moved to a farm in Lake county. Ten years later they returned to Wheeling to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Emma Grewe. His wife, Ida, passed away July 19, 1934.

Mr. Wulff enjoyed good health until two years ago, when an operation became necessary. He rallied remarkably well and was quite active until last June when a second operation was performed, after which he was never fully recovered.

Prepare to come early, prepare to stay late. There's a deal of fun for all. Remember next Friday get on the ball.

CLASSICS ON THE CAMPUS

Gay plaid combines with black in a one-piece dress (left). Grey worsted flannel (right) in a youthful long-jacketed suit.

A FAIRLY safe rule for all college wardrobes—or any wardrobe, for that matter—would be that they should include a grey flannel suit. Probably no other one item will prove its worth so consistently through so many seasons, if it is designed on classic lines.

The New York suit pictured, for instance, incorporates all the new features of rounded hip and shoulder lines and well demarcated waist, yet still keeps to a simplicity that is timeless. A Dutch collar lends a youthful air to the jacket. Brown buttons and narrow brown leather belt point up the fact that brown is smarter than black as an accessory color with grey this season.

Plaids were never more important, both for party-going and more prosaic purposes. Some of the most successful college party clothes by New York designers are in wool plaids gay as a piper's tune, many of them separate skirts, very full and of ankle length, teamed with black velvet blouses or basque jackets.

The dress pictured is one piece, combining red, black and white plaid skirt with black wool bodice in two piece effect. The scarf muffler carries more importance than a casual glance would tell; the "mufflered" look on suits, coats and dresses is one seen over and over in the Fall and Winter collections of New York designers. Such a dress leads an active life on the campus, being pretty enough for an afternoon date and tailored enough for the classroom.

In an effort to make 1948 automobile license plate applications easily available to every motorist in Illinois, Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett is preparing to distribute the forms to 30,000 points in the State.

Last year Secretary Barrett upped the usual number of outlets for the application forms from 15,000 to 25,000, and this year added 5,000 additional outlets for the convenience of motorists.

Secretary Barrett said that members of his office are packing supplies this week and that shipments would be dispatched to reach all outlets by November 1.

The Secretary also announced that the 1948 plates will be orange with black numerals, a color combination scientifically tested for easy readability at day or night. He said a new type of numeral chosen on the basis of studies conducted by traffic experts is being used this year.

Local centers which will be furnished with supplies of the 1948 application blanks the end of next week include daily and weekly newspapers, notary publicans, currency exchanges, farm bureaus, automobile clubs, automobile dealers and other points selected to provide an even state-wide distribution.

Patents have been issued to: M. M. Marisic, Northbrook, for cracking of hydrocarbons. D. E. Bord, Northbrook, and M. Savoy, Chicago, hydrocarbon extraction process.

Major Fred K. Durni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Durni of 434 S. Dunton St., Arlington Heights, has accepted a commission in the Regular Army as a captain, officials at Headquarters, San Antonio Air Materiel Area, announced.

Major Durni spent 26 months overseas during World War II, having seen service in the China-Burma-India Theater, and the Pacific Theater. At the present time, he is assistant officer in charge of the 1st Signal Radio Maintenance Team, at Kelly Field, Texas.

Delegates from all organizations of every Evangelical and Reformed church in this area are to officially represent their respective churches at this conference. Outstanding denominational leaders will be present, including Dr. Robert Stanger of Detroit. Other synodical officials will also be present.

These leaders and officials will present the program for the year and this meeting should be educational and inspirational, as well as informative. Visitors are welcome to attend.

PALATINE HOPES TO COP FIRST FOOTBALL TROPHY SATURDAY

Cards keep pace; meet Leyden here under archs Friday

Arlington Heights Cardinals will be gunning for another victory this Friday night on the home field under lights when the unpredictable Leyden eleven comes to town.

Coach Larsen's boys pulled an upset last week when they grabbed a 13-6 victory at Niles, and hope to continue their present pace against the Eagles.

The Trojans were favored to cop the Heights tilt and go on to the last game with first place at stake in their final contest against defending Lake Forest.

THE PICTURE has changed now, however, with the Trojans and Cards tied for second spot. Niles can gain a share of first place by whipping ever-improving Lake Forest in that final contest November 7, providing they gain expected wins over Woodstock and Libertyville.

The Heights boys are pulling for Niles in that final game, for if the locals can continue their winning ways against Leyden, Warren and Woodstock, they, too, will share in the trophy if Lake Forest bows once.

FRIDAY night's contest on the Heights field is scheduled to start at 7:45 p.m. with a good sized crowd expected. Arlington fans have given the new lights a good reception, and members of the team have shown more spirit playing before larger home crowds.

PRELIMINARY to the varsity contest will be the tilt between the local Jayvee squad and Leyden junior-varsity. The junior Cardinals have a record of one victory in four starts to date, but will be out gunning for a victory Friday. Game time is 6:15 p.m.

Crystal Lake and Niles are leading trophy winners in NE league

That most high schools appear to concentrate, either in direct action or in spirit, on one or two major sports, and follow along on the others, was borne out this week by the results of a survey made of past winners in major sports of the Northeast conference.

The study covered football, basketball, baseball and track for the eight years since the Northeast conference started operating the fall of 1939. Thirty-five champions were declared during these years, including three ties.

CRYSTAL LAKE and Niles led the NE conference in awards. The Lakers took two in basketball, two in football, and four in track.

Niles grabbed four basketball, four baseball and two track trophies.

Interesting sidelight on the statistics is that none of the three teams possibly left in the league as of next year, Arlington, Niles or Leyden never won a football championship.

ARLINGTON and Lake Forest copped six and five trophies, the Cards accumulating theirs in baseball and basketball, while the Lakers took theirs in football and track.

Libertyville copped three football awards, while Leyden copped only one baseball trophy. Woodstock won basketball in 1941.

Warren, now the smallest school in the last year of the present conference setup, took baseball and football in 1941.

AN ALL-TIME all-star Northeast conference team could theoretically include the football squads of Lake Forest, the baseball nines of Arlington, the basketball teams of Niles and Crystal Lake trackmen. This would give the theoretical aggregation 15 championships granted over the eight year span.

Woodstock and Crystal Lake to quit Northeast

Crystal Lake and Woodstock have definitely decided to accept the invitation to join the newly formed Lake county league, it was learned this week. Crystal Lake high school board voted Monday night to accept, and Woodstock is expected to follow suit.

Warren, Lake Forest and Libertyville previously withdrew from the Northeast league to form the new conference with Grayslake and Zion Benton high schools. Official resignation of Woodstock and Crystal Lake from the local league has not been made as yet, but is expected as soon as conference officials get together.

OFFICIALS of the new conference held a meeting this week, Wednesday night to choose a complete slate of officers with athletic competition slated to open schedules next fall.

Meet Bensenville on Arlington field under the lights

The game of the week in the Northwest Conference is to be the clash between Palatine and Bensenville scheduled for the Arlington Heights lighted field Saturday night of this week. The Pirates are the only unbeaten team in the league with wins over Northbrook, Antioch and Barrington.

Bensenville, rated strongest in the league, has whipped Antioch 43-0 and Barrington 32-0 but last week dropped to second place by virtue of a 15-14 loss to Grant. A victory for Palatine Saturday would assure the Pirates of at least a share of the league championship. A win for Bensenville would throw the lead into a four way tie between Bensenville, Grant, Northbrook, and Palatine.

The Bensenville team, after making 17 first downs to Grant's five, was upset by a team they regard as a weaker outfit. Naturally the Bisons are in a tough mood and will be out to redeem themselves Saturday night. They will be strengthened by the return of Kellar, fast hard hitting junior back, who has been out the past two games with an injury.

THE BISONS have a good line, a better than average running attack, and one of the best passing attacks in this area, if records mean anything. The Bisons, with Robertson throwing them, have completed 27 passes in 47 attempts in three league games. Most of their points have been scored or scoring plays made possible by their aerial attack.

Palatine's line will compare favorably with that of Bensenville. When right, the Pirates have a better punter in Henry Spoo. They have a good breakaway ball carrier in Harold Stephan who is always dangerous. They have a deadly blocker and hard runner in Dick Pepper.

THE TEAMS compare well except in one respect which is the question mark in this title contest. The question is whether Palatine can stop the Bison air attack. If they can they may, like Grant, have a chance to upset the favored Bensenville eleven.

Palatine is the under dog but they like being rated that way. This Palatine team will not be licked if they get behind. Anything can happen in this game coming up Saturday and it won't be over until the final whistle.

The game is being played at Arlington on Saturday night at 7:45 in order that fans of both communities may get a chance to see their favorites clash in this championship contest. The game was originally carded for Palatine's Ost Field Saturday afternoon but the Palatine authorities decided to gamble on the weather and rental fee and play the game at night at Arlington.

IT STACKS up as a natural and with Arlington having bleachers to seat 1,500 people the game should attract a huge crowd. Admission will be 60¢ for adults and 30¢ for high school & grade school students if identified as such. Ticket windows will

Field goal gives Grant 15-14 win over Bisons

Haiman hits pay dirt after missing two conversions

Haiman's field goal from the 10 yard line with a minute and a half to play gave Grant a 15-14 victory over Bensenville Friday night on the Bison's field. After a sensational first half in which both teams scored twice and Bensenville converted both times to out-point a strong Leyden squad 13-6 on the local field before an evening crowd of about four hundred.

Both teams were evenly matched but the Cards took good advantage of their breaks and pushed across two touchdowns, while holding Leyden to a lone field goal.

Bensenville made 17 first downs to Grant's 5 with Bob Thollander playing a great game as ball carrier and pass catcher but the yardage figures were not so one-sided with the Bisons having 262 and Grant 236. Haiman was outstanding for Grant. The Grant victory threw Bensenville, Grant, and Northbrook into a second place tie in the conference standings a game behind Palatine who still has to meet both the Bisons and Bulldogs and reserve strength.

The Pirates will have to be iron men the rest of the way for the Palatine coach is almost lacking in capable replacements. The loss of J. Kathrein, regular right tackle, in the Antioch game, has been a tough blow for this good boy may be lost for the rest of the games.

HAIMAN is hero of the week

Little "Bill" Haiman, Grant left half, is the hero of the week. His field goal which traveled 30 yards with minute and a half to go, on fourth down, split the uprights for three points which gave Grant a 15-14 victory over Bensenville. It was the neatest exhibition of coming through when the chips were down that we have ever seen. The result was applauded in Palatine and Northbrook for along with Grant the three of us saw visions of a share of the league title which had appeared to be about sewed up by the Bisons.

GRANT scored the first touchdown of the game. After advancing into Bensenville territory on a drive which included a 28 yard pass caught by A. Hill the Bulldogs were penalized 15 yards and Becker booted a 56 yard punt on the Bison four yard stripe. On the first Bison play Thollander ran 20 yards. On the next Ben-

Northwest Conference standings. The Pirates coached by Dick Welty have a tough two weeks as they meet the top rivals in the conference, both of whom far surpass Palatine in manpower and reserve strength.

THOLLANDER best back in the league

Bob Thollander of Bensenville is the hardest running back in the league. That was our estimate of the Bison star after watching the Grant game. You cannot keep that lad off the all-conference team. He has scored

Meanwhile Antioch would be playing at Barrington with the winner getting out of the cellar. Of course if Palatine could upset Bensenville Saturday night in the game to be played at Arlington the Pirates would have clinched at least a share of the championship and the Bisons would be out of the running. The other three would have to win their remaining two games to tie for the title. Palatine can get a share by winning one and losing one.

PALATINE enjoying best season on record

Regardless of the outcome of the next two games Palatine has had their best football season of all time. This week the Pirates hold a distinction never experienced by any former Pirate grid team, that of being in undisputed possession of first place in the

Heights frosh keep slate clean with win over Leyden

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Arlington Heights Frosh football eleven stretched its winning streak to four straight last Thursday evening when it managed to out-point a strong Leyden squad 13-6 on the local field before an evening crowd of about four hundred.

Both teams were evenly matched but the Cards took good advantage of their breaks and pushed across two touchdowns, while holding Leyden to a lone field goal.

Heights got going early in the first period when George Kovacik had recovered an Arlington punt on the Eagle's 30, which had bounced off an intended Leyden receiver. Combined drives by Paul Roche, Ron Thill and Kovacik moved the ball up to the 7 in a series of eight plays. On second down, Thill found a hole through Leyden's forward wall and sped into the end-zone for the extra point was foiled, putting the locals in front 6-0.

On second down, Thill found a hole through Leyden's forward wall and sped into the end-zone for the first touchdown. The try for the extra point was foiled, putting the locals in front 6-0.

LEYDEN tied the score in the second period when Johnson swept 20 yards through right tackle for a touchdown, capitalizing on a 64-yard march from its own 14 to Arlington's 20. No more scoring was done and the first half ended in a 6-6 tie.

Arlington had a scare thrown into them late in the third period when Masha intercepted Bob Fasicks aerial on his own 47 and raced over the goal. However the horn had blown and the penalty was called against the Eagles for offside, eliminating the touchdown.

The pay-off tally came midway in the final quarter when Kovacik again recovered a Leyden fumble on the Eagles' 27. Paul Roche moved it up to the 18 and Kovacik ripped on an end-round across the goal for the winning tally. Thill crashed through for the extra point to push the Cards farther out in front 13-6.

ARLINGTON staved off a late Leyden rally on its own 25 and took over the ball, stalling out the remaining seconds.

The Cards will take on Leyden again in their next game. This contest will be held on the Eagles' gridiron next Thursday afternoon.

Leyden and Arlington each have their finest Frosh teams or record this year. Each has rolled over other opposition at will. The Eagles, however, have a big weight advantage over Arlington. The Cards line average 175 while the Eagles can field a line averaging 185. The Eagles backfield also outweighs the Cards backfield by about 25 pounds.

LEYDEN will make a great effort to get an even break with the Cards for this season when the Cards yearlings travel to Leyden for their return game Thursday.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS BOYS TO BOX IN CYO TOURNAMENT

Henry Nichols is busily engaged in an attempt to get a full squad of boys to represent Arlington Heights in the C. Y. O. annual boxing tournament. Boxing instruction is provided each week at the Arlington Heights high school gym Tuesday evenings and at the Legion home, Douglas Avenue at Miner street Friday evenings.

The CYO tournament will be held November 19 to 23 inclusive to determine the boys who will participate in the finals at the Chicago stadium December 9.

Mr. Nichols is hopeful that several boys will enroll for a chance to enter the finals of the CYO tournament.

AAA bows, 13-7, to Jefferson Park

Arlington Athletic Association took it on the chin Tuesday night when they bowed to Jefferson Park, 13-7. The Heights tally was made in the third quarter after a pass interception on the Jefferson 40 yard line. Meehan then tossed to Kourns for the score. Conversion was made by passing. Jefferson intercepted an Arlington pass the final frame on the Heights' 20 yard stripe. Sullivan finally scored from the two yard line. Conversion was missed.

A pass to the right end for Jefferson accounted for the other touchdown. Extra point was made, bringing final tally to 13-7.

Bisons lose to Grant

Grant kicked off out of bounds and Bensenville started a drive from their own 40 yard line which produced a touchdown as Robertson threw a perfect pass to Thollander in the end zone from the 18 yard line. Robertson booted the extra point and the Bisons led 7-6 at the quarter.

On the fourth play of the second quarter Kirkpatrick tossed a pass to Hammer in the flat and the little Grant end scooted down the side line like a frightened rabbit 68 yards to score and give Grant a 12-7 lead. Haiman again missed the place kick for the extra point.

A FEW minutes later Bensenville's star guard, Gaspar, nailed a Grant fumble on the 31 yard line. After Pittman failed to gain Robertson passed to Seik for 10 yards to the 21. After three plays failed Robertson's pass to Thollander was good for 19 yards and first down on the Grant two yard line. Thollander plunged over and Robertson converted for a 14-12 half time score.

In the third period Komay and Thollander paced a Bison drive which ended when Kirkpatrick of Grant intercepted a pass on his own nine yard stripe. Later Grant blocked a Bensenville punt, and as the period ended Kirkpatrick intercepted to stop another Bison advance after it had gone 45 yards. Late in the last quarter Grant blocked a Bison punt in midfield and recovered on the Bison 28. An incomplete pass, a 12 yard loss, a 12 yard pass, a 12 yard run by Becker, and six yards in three

Mac Says —

Palatine as a pair of extra good backs in Pepper and Stephan. Dick Pepper is the best blocking back in the league and a hard runner and smart signal caller. He is Palatine's surest tackler. Harold Stephan is the fast shifty ball toter who is one of the top boys of the league in total ground gained. He is a breakaway runner who has touchdownd runs of 29, 46, 56, 67, and 75 yards this season.

Broncho Frosh-Sophs best in Northwest

Barrington's varsity team has not scored in three league games but on the other hand their frosh-soph team is undefeated. Latest conquests have been victories of 21-0 over Bensenville and 30-0 over Palatine. The Bronchos should be a lot tougher next season.

Our picks for week

In this week's Northeast games the Warren at Libertyville homecoming tilt on Saturday looks like a toss up. We will pick Warren by 7-6. Arlington may have quite a lot of trouble with Leyden's Eagles Friday night but a score of 13-0 is our guess with the Cards on top. Niles, after being upset by Arlington, will manhandle hapless Woodstock. We hate to estimate by how much.

Lake Forest meets an up and coming foe in Crystal Lake on Friday afternoon and the gold coasters should win by about 26-6. In the Northwest we will say Grant 33 Antioch 0 and Northbrook 13 Barrington 0.

The Bison-Pirate game Saturday night might be closer than some observers predict. On the basis of comparative scores Palatine is the under dog by about 20-6 but it could be a mighty close affair if the Pirates can throttle down Bensenville's high powered passing attack.

more plays left Grant with 4th down on the Bison 10 and six to go. It was Grant's last play with the outcome of the game in the balance. Grant lined up for a place kick. The pass from center was wide and fumbled but finally put in place and Haiman, who had missed both tries for extra point kicked the ball squarely between the uprights. Bensenville, after the kickoff, had time for just four pass plays. One of them was a 50 yard toss by Robertson which Thollander dropped with a clear field and a 10 yard lead on the nearest Grant play.

THOLLANDER'S running at a 7.5 a trip average and his pass catching and Robertson's fine passing gave the Bisons a strong offense. Pittman at tackle and Gaspar at guard were outstanding for the Bisons in the line. Haiman and Becker on offense and Kirkpatrick on defense were Grant's best backs among eight who saw action. Walker was Grant's best lineman.

be open at 7:00 p.m. and the kickoff is set for 7:45.

The same evening Grant will host to Antioch in Fox Lake. The Bulldogs are all hepped up after Haiman's toe pulled the Bensenville game out of the fire and gave Grant a chance at the championship. The Bulldogs should have a breather this week before taking on Palatine in Palatine the next Saturday.

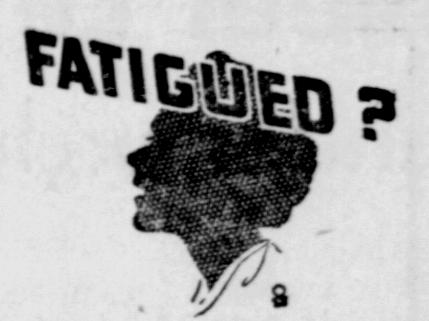

NORTHBROOK, also in a contending position, celebrates homecoming Saturday afternoon with Barrington supposed to be their third victim. The Vikings have come up strong since their opening defeat at the hands of Palatine and can give anyone in the circuit a tough ball game.

Urge adoption of anti-TB bill at Nov. 4 election

Great savings to the taxpayers will result if badly needed tuberculosis treatment facilities in suburban Cook county are approved by the voters in the tuberculosis district referendum November 4. It was emphasized this week by the Chicago-Cook County Committee for the Eradication of Tuberculosis.

Under terms of the Illinois Hospital Construction Act, passed by the last General Assembly, $4,675,000 was appropriated for the next two years for financial assistance in construction of public or non-profit hospitals.

This amount may be in addition to the Federal aid, which also provides one-third the construction cost. Since $5,500,000 is expected from Federal funds during the next two years, Illinois communities may expect a total of $10,000,000 in State and Federal funds to aid in hospital construction during the biennium.

In the five year period, 1941-1945, there were 1,132 tuberculosis deaths in Cook county outside Chicago, according to statistics from the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county. These figures showed 234 T.B. deaths among residents of suburban Cook county in 1941; 269 in 1942; 254 in 1943; 208 in 1944; and 167 in 1945. This amounts to an average death toll of 226.4 from all forms of tuberculosis.

Even on the basis of the 167 deaths in 1945, fewest for any year in the 1941-45 period (last period for which complete figures are available) more than 400 beds would be required.

In sharp contrast to the demonstrated need, only 132 beds are available for tuberculosis patients in Cook county outside Chicago and these consist of pauper beds in Cook county hospital and Oak Forest Infirmary.

Park Ridge girl polio victim

Patricia Hamill, 9½ year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hamill, 1600 S. Courtland ave., Park Ridge, who was stricken with infantile paralysis a week ago is in a serious condition in Cook county hospital.

Patricia, who has lost coordination of her body movements has lost most of her power to speak, shows little improvement other than the fact that her temperature remains below 100 degrees.

The little girl became ill Wednesday, Oct. 8, and on Sunday, under the care of a local pediatrician, she was taken to Children's Memorial hospital, where her case was diagnosed as polio. Later that day she was removed to Cook county hospital.

If the dog is brought into the house for the winter; make sure that the bed will be out of drafts and also keep it cleaned out so you don't have fleas and ticks in the house.

Unusual Dogs

Sometime ago the editor asked readers to send in to him any information regarding an unusual dog owned by one of the readers of this column.

A few folks answered and as a result the first article on an unusual breed will appear soon.

If you by chance have a breed of dog that you think is unusual, write to the dog editor in care of this paper telling him about the breed of dog you own.

Winter Quarters

Again that time is here when dog owners are starting to think about winter quarters for their pets especially if the dog has been kept outside during most of the warm summer months.

If you intend to keep the dog outside don't forget to have an extra old blanket in the dog house, or an extra batch of

It Happened Here

Some thing we should like to see again: The Century Magazine lying on the center table, a magazine that brot famous writers, artists and essayists to brighten our lives each month. The Century! What a magazine was that with its simple attractive cover, needing nothing but the name to set it apart, no dogs, cats or beauty models for decoration, simply the scroll and the name, The Century. The paper was of the best quality, the print legible and the whole format dignified. Dignity, that's what such a magazine stood for, and in its pages we became acquainted with such authors as Howells, James and Edith Wharton, and such artists as Sargent, Homer Winslow and Inness. Another thing we should like to see is The Youth's Companion, familiar of our childhood and youth; when that periodical died, something of value was lost to American youth. A prolific contributor to The Companion, C. A. Stephens, was recently brot to mind; a New England woman writes that they spend their vacation in Maine near the old Stephens' home, a rambling place of forty-two rooms. Another lost thing is The Outlook, Lyman Abbott, editor.

'Ice Follies of 1948'

The greatest galaxy of internationally-famous figure skating stars ever assembled is seen in the biggest and best Shipstad and Johnson musical ice extravaganza, "Ice Follies of 1948," coming to the Chicago Arena on October 23. The engagement will include 25 nightly performances at 8:30 through November 16 and matinees each Saturday and Sunday at 2:30.

Seats are on sale at the Arena box office and at Lytton's, State and Jackson in the loop. Mail orders also are being accepted.

Heading the list of world-celebrated skating experts are Roy Shipstad, co-producer of the Ice Follies and hailed as the world's most famous smooth skater; Evelyn Chandler, long acclaimed the greatest acrobatic skater of all time, and Frick and Frack, Swiss masters of comedy with a brand-new bag of tricks.

Others who have won the plaudits of skating fans for their blade excellence are Betty Schallow, epitome of skating artistry; Hazel Franklin, Britain's leading skating star; Mac Ross, the most accomplished interpretive skater; Harris and Phyllis Legg, the only mixed stilt-skating pair in addition to Harris' dare-devil speed and stunt performance; Les Hamilton, veteran comedian with a unique touch; Dick Rasmussen and Ole Ericson, tops in delineating comedy animal characters, and Hugh Hendrickson, handsome young figure skating star.

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing wastes and these must be removed from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of wastes in the body, resulting in distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness and red eyes—feeling tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes the first evidence of kidney trouble.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess pressure and remove the wastes. These "Pills" have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed by the country over. Insist on Doans. Sold at all drug stores.

Palatine boys on Camp Grant team

Ben Babcock and Robert Schultz are two Palatine boys who have made the regiment team at Camp Grant. Babcock was a star at end, but is now playing quarterback. Schultz is playing right guard.

These are the only boys on the team who have not had college training and they are showing the college players that they can play real football. Robert is going to non-com school and is now an acting sergeant.

Villages fight for quality in gas

Last mail leaves Palatine at 5:39

At the request of postmaster A. R. Godknecht, Palatine authority has been granted for the discontinuance of the pouch service on the fast evening Chicago bound train, and substituting therefor a poucher and sack service on the 5:39 p.m. train. The latter train will take all mail, including parcel post, except registered matter.

Heretofore parcel post would not leave Palatine after 3:28 until the next day. The postmaster has also asked for the receipt of the early morning mail on the 6:26 instead of on the 7:33. The improvement is evident to all.

Farmers strike for $3.70

Members of the Milk Producers association went on a milk strike in a number of places Thursday. At Palatine not a pound of milk was either shipped or delivered to the Bowman plant. The latter company posted a price of $3.21 late Wednesday afternoon, but the farmers said it was not enough. They are asking for $3.70.

The Lake Zurich Creamery patrons are delivering their milk to the plants at Lake Zurich and Schaumburg, fully confident that C. H. Patten will abide by the final decision of the milk association. The Arlington Heights farmers all shipped Thursday.

Borden's and Kee & Chapel offered $3.00 for milk, promising the people of Chicago to charge them only 12¢ a quart instead of 13¢.

Tales of the STREET

BY L. C. HART

OCTOBER WEATHER

The poet who wrote about "October's bright blue weather" might well have been talking about the present month, for so far October has certainly turned out a lot of that "bright blue weather" that makes this fall stand out as one of the most beautiful of all time.

Day after day of warm sunny weather with the leaves turning and making every street a vista of golden beauty has put the fall of 1947 into the class of select seasons that have been particularly fine and beautiful. It's been a great fall to be outdoors; it's been great for the farmers, enabling them to do a lot of fall work. It has shortened the winter at least at this end by not turning on any bad cold spells.

Now along comes an old timer and says that the bees are busy gathering their second crop of honey and that we are in for three weeks more of this same kind of weather. Let it come, we imagine everyone can stand it. It's just sort of making up to us for that awful spring we had and that conglomeration of weather we had when it should have been spring.

If Palatine were to put in those meter things just how good a chance would Mayor De Pue have to dodge chief Charlie Folz. Chief Folz parks at the mayor's corner while he's directing morning traffic at the railroad, and the mayor would have a tough time to dodge into his office without Charlie seeing him.

He'd even have a tough time to slide in the side door without getting caught so if Palatine ever falls for that parking meter business the mayor will surely get trapped in his office where he'll hear the complaints.

That surely was some contrast to some of those lengthy meetings that they have been in the habit of holding. The experience of adjourning early and getting out of there seemed to make a hit with everyone. We wouldn't be surprised if they'd put on speed and try to repeat the performance at future meetings where the docket isn't so heavily loaded with business.

Pretty soon they'll be talking about metering the air we breathe. Better for some of these places to begin a real study of the street parking, rather than to jump at the chance of getting an extra penny or two of revenue at the expense of the people who try to shop in the town and thus make the town.

INSIDE INFORMATION

A fellow finds "hot things" and "inside information" at places other than race tracks, and the said information is about as good as some of that that's always floating around the race tracks.

One Monday recently Jerry Dean says, "Want a hot tip for tonight? Bet on Dean. I've been going so awfully at this bowling business that I'm due for a good series and tonight should be it." So thinking we were getting some inside stable information we promptly made a bet with Roy La Londe that Dean would beat him in total pins that night. Roy hadn't been doing so well this season.)

Then we went over to the bowling alleys to see our good thing perform. It performed just like a lot of other "good things" we have seen in our day. Dean amassed a total of 113 pins in that first game while Roy shot a good score. Our "hot thing" improved a little in the second, but so did Roy as it went.

A form chart of our "good things" performance would have read about like this, "off to a bad start and failed to improve its us, but he certainly handed it to Palatine's school spirit. The way Palatine's cheer leaders kept the yell rolling out over that field aroused this fellow's admiration.

"Any team ought to win just to show their appreciation for that kind of support," he said. All through the game he and others were remarking on the school spirit of the Palatine rooting section. Right they were, but they should have seen that same fine fighting spirit during the year when Palatine didn't have a winning team.

It's easy to get up a lot of spirit over a winning team, but when the fans stick with a loser and keep cheering to the end, that is the test of real spirit. During the lean years and especially last year Palatine passed that test.

With wins far apart and like last year with even a touchdown an unknown commodity, those Palatine cheer leaders and Palatine students kept cheering desperately to the bitter end. They never let down, they never quit, they were cheering on their hopeless team as if it had been a champion.

They showed a wonderful spirit and that Barrington fan who praised them Saturday should have seen them at the close of last season, victoryless, scoreless, but cheering just as desperately at the season's final gun as they had been at the first whistle. This year they've got a winner to cheer for and it's like ending a long drought for both the team and that loyal student body that has never for a single minute let their boys down, either in victory or defeat.

The little front gable with flush siding above the entrance door gives the house the impression of clinging close to the ground, a desirable characteristic of the cottagey type of architecture.

Its wide bay of casement windows brings in light and air and add an unusually attractive note to the exterior. The large covered porch, 15' long by 10' wide, invites comfortable, outdoor living. A garage may be attached to the opposite side of the house to balance the porch if desired.

The UNDERWOOD working drawings show a conventional, full basement with plenty of room for laundry tubs, storage, work shop or for a game room in which the youngsters can entertain their guests.

The living room is not large but ample. It is meant to be sunroomed, whenever weather permits, by the Judge upholds Palatine police in their work in safety and keeping the peace

PALATINE POLICE

In view of the recent articles appearing in the Fence Post, I feel that certain facts concerning the Palatine Police Department should of necessity be published.

The Police Officers receive their appointment from the Village Council upon recommendation of the Mayor and the Police Committee and are thoroughly examined before being turned for duty. Chief Folz has had a wide experience in police work and all police officers are assigned to the Police Department. They are seen that all vendors and peddlers from out of town take their licenses and check all new buildings and alteration work for licensing permit.

The police are present at all funerals, parades, festivals, etc., directing traffic and keeping order as well as set to the enforcement of orders of the Health Officer. It is the police who see that taverns obey the closing time law and in some instances have taken considerable abuse for obeying orders.

If Palatine were to put in those meter things just how good a chance would Mayor De Pue have to dodge chief Charlie Folz. Chief Folz parks at the mayor's corner while he's directing morning traffic at the railroad, and the mayor would have a tough time to dodge into his office without Charlie seeing him.

He'd even have a tough time to slide in the side door without getting caught so if Palatine ever falls for that parking meter business the mayor will surely get trapped in his office where he'll hear the complaints.

That surely was some contrast to some of those lengthy meetings that they have been in the habit of holding. The experience of adjourning early and getting out of there seemed to make a hit with everyone. We wouldn't be surprised if they'd put on speed and try to repeat the performance at future meetings where the docket isn't so heavily loaded with business.

Pretty soon they'll be talking about metering the air we breathe. Better for some of these places to begin a real study of the street parking, rather than to jump at the chance of getting an extra penny or two of revenue at the expense of the people who try to shop in the town and thus make the town.

It should be brought to mind that the police are required to do whatever is required of them, even to the risking of their lives. That is their job. Their salary is not large and their hours are long and no pension awaits them when they can no longer carry out their duties or are dismissed because of a change of administration or to appease some citizens who is above the local law.

The Palatine police have made a fine record, they are doing their job well in a growing community. It has been many years since we have had a robbery or holdup. There have not been any serious accidents in the village for a long time. The people of Palatine do not fear to walk our streets at any hour or to drive their cars in their garages during the late hours of the night. They sleep without fear because the Palatine police are doing their job well.

I would like to add that the purpose of the police department is to maintain law and order, to enforce the laws and ordinances, and to arrest offenders and give out tickets to all, whether they be the influential citizen or not.

It seems to be true that some people do not like the police. Usually there is a reason for it however and then there are those who believe they can not stand restraint or interference in their right to do as they desire regardless of the rights of others. We are grateful that in Palatine this number is very small. This group feels gratified if they can belittle the police or bring discredit upon them by circulating vicious rumors and even personalizing their hate on a policeman who has done his duty.

I write this article not necessarily in defense of our police department, but to remind the thinking people of Palatine that the department under Chief Folz is doing and has done fine work and should have the cooperative support and encouragement of those whom they serve.

Predict increase in corn picker mishaps

Although crop prospects point toward a smaller corn yield this year, Illinois farmers may expect an up-surge in corn picker casualties unless special precautions are taken, according to W. W. Whitlock, Illinois Agricultural Association safety department director. He states that crop conditions in many areas of the state make harvesting condition with mechanical units even more hazardous this season than usual. Much corn is down, blown over by wind or felled by insects and

Mechanical Genius Comes To Aid Of Farmers In Saving Soft Corn

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Note—Installations in all types of structures should be made so air will be forced through all of the corn.

DRYING WITHOUT HEAT—Ear corn, with 20 to 28% moisture, has been dried without supplementary heat. Drying is satisfactory when temperature is 50 degrees Fahrenheit or higher, with relative humidity of 65% and lower. Blower should deliver air at volume of 5 to 10 cubic feet per minute per bushel. It should be remembered that a bushel of ear corn contains 2½ cubic feet of crib space. Drying not completed in the spring. Corn can be stored safely if its moisture content is about 18%.

With HEAT—Supplementary heat shortens drying period and permits drying to continue in cold weather. Locate heater outside crib in front of blower, so hot air will be drawn from heater and forced into crib. Fire precautions: Screen air entering and leaving heater; use metal ducts near heater; install automatic cut-off on burner to prevent excessive temperatures developing if fan is stopped. Assuming oil heat is used, 1,000 bushels of ear corn having a moisture content of 30% can be dried in from 4 to 6 days provided the blower delivers 5,400 cubic feet of air per minute and the burner so air is directed into duct.

DOBLE CRIBS—Line inside walls with building paper for 4 feet back of doorways. Install blower in one entrance; seal openings and cracks around entrances. SINGLE CRIBS—Install slatted duct in center of crib floor (duct can be square or an "A" frame made of snow fence). Locate blower so air is directed into duct.

SEALED BUILDINGS—Install a slatted floor 2 feet above tight floor. Charge air under this floor; leave adequate openings at top of crib for air to escape. TEMPORARY CRIBS—Built of snow fence in usual way. Install duct, in way previously described, on ground through center of crib. Install blower in one end and seal other opening of duct 4 feet from end.

easy operation, particularly if they have now hay curing equipment available. For the same motors and fans used in curing hay can be used in drying corn. Both present double and single cribs can be adapted for mechanical drying. Here are some suggestions:

DOBLE CRIBS—Line inside walls with building paper for 4 feet back of doorways. Install blower in one entrance; seal openings and cracks around entrances. SINGLE CRIBS—Install slatted duct in center of crib floor (duct can be square or an "A" frame made of snow fence). Locate blower so air is directed into duct.

SEALED BUILDINGS—Install a slatted floor 2 feet above tight floor. Charge air under this floor; leave adequate openings at top of crib for air to escape. TEMPORARY CRIBS—Built of snow fence in usual way. Install duct, in way previously described, on ground through center of crib. Install blower in one end and seal other opening of duct 4 feet from end.

If forced air ventilation equipment is not available, it is recommended that farmers ensile corn, sort and feed it early, delay harvesting to allow maximum drying of ear corn in the field, husk cleanly, store corn of highest moisture content in the narrowest cribs and use adequate ventilators.

Undulant fever in humans is traceable to Bang's disease of cattle as well as brucellosis of swine. Doctor Davenport attributes the increase in undulant fever to the greatly increased cattle traffic. To discussing the new brucellosis control law, he said:

To make dairy and breeding animals eligible for sale and transfer from one herd to another, the new law requires that female animals and breeding bulls must be (1) from an abortion-free accredited herd, or

(2) under 30 months of age and officially vaccinated between the ages of four and eight months, or

(3) found negative to a Bang's disease test within sixty days of date of sale."

It must be realized, said Doctor Davenport, that transfer of any animals whose Bang's disease status is unknown or is disregarded might endanger the life of any child or adult who consumes raw milk or other dairy products produced by the infected cows. The purpose of the law is to help eliminate the traffic of Bang's dangerous animals and thereby reduce the danger to the general public health.

Once an easement has been acquired, it will pass to subsequent owners of the land and can be lost only by nonuse or specific conveyance. Therefore, one purchasing land should ascertain whether or not he will be subject to an easement of any kind by adjacent landowners. Illinois courts have placed a strict construction on the extent of easements and have held that they are limited by the way they were used during the prescriptive period. For example, if an owner acquires a 10-foot easement of way across the north end of a neighbor's pasture, 20 feet from the fence, he has a right to use only that land and has no right to cross at any other place or to widen the lane.

Whether or not an easement exists in a particular case is often difficult to determine. If substantial property rights are involved, the question should be referred to legal counsel.

Other examples of easements which may be acquired are the right to flood the land of an upper owner, to change the flow of surface waters on the land of lower owners and to maintain a drain across the land of another.

It is important to keep in mind that the party subject to these disadvantages (the "servient" owner) may prevent the acquisition of an easement by prohibiting further use of his land for the purpose in question at some time prior to the "running" of the prescriptive period. Also, by expressly giving his consent to a use of his land, he may prevent the creation of an easement, the law holding that as long as he consents to the use a mere license is all that exists. An easement by "prescriptive use" can come into being only when the owner subject to the use does not give his consent and also fails to prohibit it.

During August the diagnostic laboratories of the College of Veterinary Medicine, diagnosed pneumonia as the cause of death of 18 pigs submitted for autopsy. In each case the pig had either died from chronic pneumonia, or his resistance had been lowered by the disease, making him more susceptible to other swine diseases.

Swine pneumonia is an infectious disease usually caused by bacteria. It often follows some form of irritation of the lung tissue, such as exposure to severe weather conditions or the breathing of dust or other irritating substances. Another type may be caused by the introduction of foreign material into the lungs as a result of improper medication.

A pig with pneumonia usually has chills and fever, accompanied by difficult and rapid breathing commonly referred to as thumps. These symptoms are similar to those of hog cholera. A complete post mortem examination by a qualified veterinarian is usually necessary in order to distinguish between the two diseases.

Pneumonia may be prevented during the farrowing season largely by using proper sanitary measures. The farrowing pens should be clean, well ventilated and free from drafts. Artificial heat is recommended for baby pigs, especially for those farrowed early in the spring.

Pneumonia may be prevented during the farrowing season largely by using proper sanitary measures. The farrowing pens should be clean, well ventilated and free from drafts. Artificial heat is recommended for baby pigs, especially for those farrowed early in the spring.

Swine pneumonia is an infectious disease usually caused by bacteria. It often follows some form of irritation of the lung tissue, such as exposure to severe weather conditions or the breathing of dust or other irritating substances. Another type may be caused by the introduction of foreign material into the lungs as a result of improper medication.

A pig with pneumonia usually has chills and fever, accompanied by difficult and rapid breathing commonly referred to as thumps. These symptoms are similar to those of hog cholera. A complete post mortem examination by a qualified veterinarian is usually necessary in order to distinguish between the two diseases.

NOTICE is hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 10th day of November, A.D. 1947, for judgment against lands and lots herein described as delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid or personal property taxed charged thereon as noted in this advertisement and unpaid, and for tax rates, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment those which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders of sale as may be noted in this notice).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

No notice is further herein and hereby given that on the Second Monday next succeeding the 10th day of November, A.D. 1947, the 24th day of November, A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which have heretofore been made or executed, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County, where the County Court is held in said County for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is the list of delinquent lands and lots in Wheeling Township upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately listed) and the years or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lot is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTES

In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the columns "Name," "Desc." and "Acres" represent the "cts" (meaning cents) for the year 1946.

Wherever the letter "P" is placed to the left of the amount in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "Forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same in the amount column are unpaid said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended, they are indicated by "E.T."

Payments of taxes, made after printings are sent to the publishers for listing and appear as delinquent in the amount column to be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

Where no description of property (either land, lot, block or portion thereof) appears in said list to the left of the amounts in the said column headed "cts" (meaning dollars) and "Acres" (meaning cents) said figures relate to the land, lot, block or portion thereof described appearing to the left of and opposite "S" and "E" column.
